

Year 9. Pencil drawing. Accurate shape and well observed contour lines to show texture and form

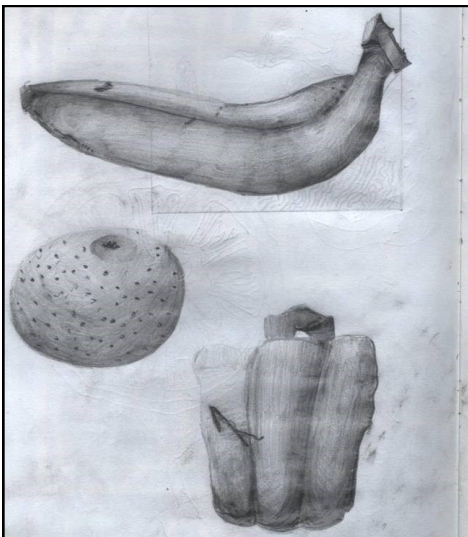

Year 7. Pen drawing. Good shape and application of media. Mark making using pen highlights texture and

Year 9. Pencil drawing. Accurate proportions and well observed features. Subtle application of tone used to create form

Year 9. Pen drawing. Exploring line and mark making using opposite hand. Taking risks and challenging the recording process

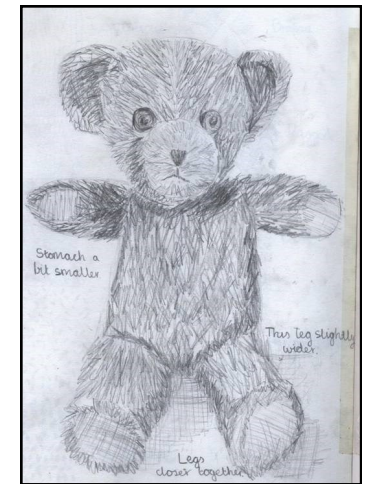

Year 8. Pen drawing. Accurate shape and rendering of tone. Pencil shading fully defines the form of the objects

Students work from a wide range of starting points, including work from different times and cultures and produce confident outcomes refining work to a high technical standard. Students make choices about media and materials and can explain how artists show meaning in their work, and how they have developed skills based on their ideas.

Confident, consistent use of media and process. A high command of skill and understanding of the visual elements. Confident ability to review and refine.

Key Stage 3—Examples of consistent and confident drawing and recording. Equivalent to GCSE Grade B

Year 7. Pencil drawing. Confident shape and application of media. Skilful mark making to show tone and texture of fur